MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director, National Foreign Assessment Center

FROM: Harry E. Fitzwater
Deputy Director for Administration

SUBJECT: Suggested Talking Points for 8 October Session with Seminar on Intelligence Analysis (SIA) Students. []

1. We wish to thank you for taking the time from your busy schedule to come to [] and chat informally with the Seminar participants. []

2. The student mix for this running is a little different from those you have recently experienced. During each of the last two runnings, we enrolled seven students from the Social Science Research Division of OGSR as well as one from the other production offices. This running will have two students each from OCR, OPA, OGSR and OSR; one from OSWR; two from OIA; two new instructors from OTE [] and a DIA economic analyst on rotational assignment to the Information Science Center of the Office of Training and Education); and one senior Soviet analyst from []

3. In terms of talking points, the kind of encouraging remarks you provided for previous runnings would again be appropriate.
However, since the implementation of the NFAC reorganization will occur during the Seminar, we feel that the analysts will be particularly anxious to hear your views of the impact of the reorganization on the "big picture" of intelligence production in NFAC; i.e., how the reorganization will help to assure a better intelligence product. [] will discuss the impact of the reorganization on the career of the individual analyst in his pre-course talk. []

4. We have included a list of the participants and a copy of the schedule. A panel of recent SIA graduates, scheduled to meet with the class on Friday, will be on the flight down with you.
They are invited to attend your session as observers. []
